

Honors

Dean's List

The Dean's List, published at the end of the fall and spring semesters, honors students for high scholastic achievement. Students who attain a grade point average of 3.60 or better in no fewer than 15 credit hours of graded college level work and have completed all work for which they are registered by the end of the semester will be on the Dean's List for that semester.

Latin Honors

Students must have earned, in residence at Fort Lewis College, no fewer than 60 semester credit hours to graduate with Latin honors. Latin honors are not awarded upon receipt of a second bachelor's degree. Grade point averages required for Latin honors are as follows:

Summa Cum Laude	Grade point average of 3.90 to 4.00
Magna Cum Laude	Grade point average of 3.75 to 3.89
Cum Laude	Grade point average of 3.60 to 3.74

Note: Latin honors read at commencement are based on the credit hours and cumulative grade point average posted as of the previous term and are not official. Official honors will be awarded upon posting of final grades, calculation of final cumulative GPA, and completion of the program of study. Official honors are noted on the final transcript and diploma.

John F. Reed Honors Program

Students who are admitted to and complete the requirements of the John F. Reed Honors Program will receive a designation on their transcripts that they are graduates of the John F. Reed Honors Program and earn a minor in the Rhetoric of Inquiry. Click Honors: John F. Reed Honors Program for more information.