

Mandatory Student Fees

Student fees are an important source of revenue for the College. The following graph shows both the total growth of student fees over the last decade, as well as the change in each individual fee.

*Student Activities include Transit, Homecoming and Senate Participation